

Stock of Phrases

1. To show White Feathers- to show fear
2. To rise like a phoenix- To start afresh
3. To raise a dust- to create confusion
4. A boon in disguise- a benefit in loss
5. To beat about the bush- an irrelevant effort
6. To talk shop- to talk nonsense
7. Through thick and thin- under all circumstances
8. My hands are full- I am busy
9. To bury the hatchet- to make peace
10. Read between the lines- to understand more than the actual words
11. To paint the town red- to celebrate noisily in public places
12. A red letter day- an important day
13. To work like a dog- to work very hard
14. To foot the bill- to make payment
15. Once and for all- forever
16. Fancy Price- High price
17. A skeleton in the cupboard- something embarrassing or shameful
18. A lady's man- a lover of women's company
19. Midas touch- ability to succeed in all projects
20. French leave- Absence without permission
21. A henpecked husband- Dominated by his wife
22. A hot potato – an issue that is awkward
23. An ivory Tower- A place or state of life that is out of touch with people 24. A soft spot- a liking or fondness for something or someone
25. To have the floor- to make a speech

Do	french	hot	potato	put	midas	touch
A	leave	greet	work	like	a	dog
Lady's	henpecked	husband	raise	dust	ivory	tower man	fancy	price	burry	paint	town	red foot	the	bill	the	boon	in	disguise skeleton	in	cupboard	hatchet	show	white	Feathers very	read	soft	once	and	for	all hands	between	spot	talk	shop	feel	fish are	the	small	through	thick	and	thin full	lines	host	have	the	floor	worth burn	admit	red	letter	day	eye	issue